The Herbert L. Clarke Collection

Synopsis

The Herbert L. Clarke Collection is an album of solos written for cornet/trumpet and piano. Herbert Clarke, considered by many to be the best and most famous cornet/trumpet player of all time, left a legacy of superior musicianship through his famous studies, several collections of which Carl Fischer Music published. He also contributed to the repertoire for cornet/trumpet by composing delightful solos whose means of expression and exploitation of trumpet virtuosity make them of outstanding value today. This collection contains a foreword by Michael Sachs of the Cleveland Orchestra and is 160 pages plus a 64-page insert. It includes material that is appropriate for intermediate to advanced players and would be fine additions to recitals, festivals and competitions.

Customer Reviews

Be careful, this does not include the soloists music, only the piano accompaniments. This is not stated anywhere in the description.

Terrific collection. I am a pro trumpet player (and teacher) and a big Clarke fan.
