Customer Reviews

Mary's stories are always interesting, life like, and easy to follow. Silent Night is another one that is like a story a friend or relative would tell but so much more exciting. The suspense is classic and rewarding. All Through the Night is a great story using Alvirahs and Willy characters and we have always enjoyed their processes and sometimes luck.

I have been reading MHC books for a while, even though this is an older one is still one worth reading or listening to. A must read!!

it so much better to listen to a story- I get so much more out of it- thanks so much,

My favorite. Had it on cassette but wanted the cd.

I really love M H Clark, and was very disappointed that these disks would not play in my car. They skipped and would not play for very long stretches of time.
