Customer Reviews

A prize-winning triple biography -- a veritable "pas de trois" -- this book represents the pinnacle of well-researched dance history! I loved reading a story of American ballet that was not New York-centric in its approach. Kudos to the author and to the Christensen brothers! This book is a "must read" for ballet lovers, dance critics, and dance historians.

Wonderful to find a well-researched book about these remarkable brothers.

Love my book! Service was excellent!
