Customer Reviews

This is the most comprehensive, informative work on reggae that I've read. It touches on every aspect of reggae, ie. "How reggae music effects the human body". "Who are the Rastafarians?" etc. If you've got a question about reggae, it's explained in this book. Outstanding!!!!

This album-sized paperback from the early Eighties, features an unforgettable cover and is an excellent, still-vital introduction to reggae music and its history. This book covers a lot of ground and thereâ™s a ton to both like and learn. You can read my full review at allmusicbooksdotcom. There are many recent and more in-depth books about reggae, but Reggae International still best captures that crucial â^70s vibe, when the bottom-heavy music and its creators were more than mysterious, and perhaps just a little bit dangerous.
